

International Indoor Soccer Arena

Here's what the view from the outside of the building will look like. As you can see, it is very eye catching. This view is from the south side of the building, looking north. We will of course have a nice amount of landscaping. You can see the roll-up glass door toward the left of the building, right next to the steps. The office, meeting room, and restrooms are in the smaller building to the right.